ENTERTAINMENTS FOR DWELLERS IN THE WOODS.

THE HUNTING SEASON FOR DEER OPEN, AND MANY ARE OUT WITH RIFLES GOLF

POPULAR-SOCIAL AFFAIRS. Paul Smith's, Aug. 19 (Special).-The open for deer hunting began last Tuesday, and for the last two weeks rifles and pack baskets have been in evidence on every hand. There is an abundance of game in the woods this year, and every promise of the best sport in years for those who know where and how, but there is a tendency for hunters to congregate in certain favored localities, and it naturally follows that these parties do not meet with any great success.

In the last weekly golf handicap the cup was won by Archibald Rogers. The women's handicap had to be postponed on account of rain. In the second match for the President's Cup E. P. Rogers and Mr. Beach tied, and in the afternoon they tied again in the play-off. The match was then post-

On August 29 the most important matches of the eeason will begin, they being the annual handicaps for the championship cup offered by the club and the handsome hotel cup. These matches will last three days, the number of contestants being reduced by successive trial matches. One of the most exciting contests of the season was the ball game last week, when the Lake Placid boys came over and beat the house team by a score of 5 to 4, after a close contest.

In the yacht races Archibald Rogers's Defiance won in the first class in 1:28:20, the fastest time ever made over the course. In the second class Francis L. Slade's Cecilia captured the prize. In the race for all boats sailing in one class the Defiance again captured the prize.

The annual meeting of the St. Regis Yacht Club was held last week, when the greatest satisfaction with the management was expressed, as it was thought that the yacht races had proved a most important element in the life and pleasures of the upper St. Regis. The officers were unanimously reelected, and sympathy was expressed for the commodore in his recent misfortune.

The officers are: Commodore, Anson Phelps

Stokes; vice-commodore, Edward L. Trudeau; secretary, L. Bayard Smith; treasurer, Simeon J. Drake, and measurer, Samuel V. Hoffman. The Rev. Dr. McConnell, of Brooklyn, held services in the pretty Episcopal church, St. John's in Among the recent New-York arrivals are Dr.

and Mrs. Malcolm Goodridge, William Putnam, Mrs. A. T. Jones, E. M. Bell, Miss M. T. Allen, Miss Hunt, H. M. Hamilton, A. C. Sage, F. D. Griswold, G. F. Brooks, Benjamin J. Downer, Mr. and Mrs. George Reuter, jr., J. F. Langtry, M. T. Wakefield and Mr. and Mrs. L. Burnham.

LAKE PLACID.

Lake Placid, Aug. 19.—The range of amusements and the wide extent of territory covered by the pleasure seekers at this ideal spot are so great that it is impossible for any one to follow all of the interesting things that are constantly occurring. There are golf matches on two different courses, regattas on both of the lakes, two baseball fields on which there are frequent games, and several tennis tournaments, besides all of the individual contests in the various sports.

In these fine days the lakes are dotted with skiffs and cances, many preparing for the coming races, others idly drifting and enjoying the scenery, while the steamer Doris makes four trips a day to accommodate the throngs which again and again make the circuit of Lake Placid, one of the mosdelightful excursions in this region of beautiful

THE STEVENS HOUSE.

The alluring scenes on the tennis court and the beautiful golf course, which lie in full view of the plazzas, have aroused the enthusiasm of most of the guests, and there is not a livelier or more picturesque scene in the mountains than these grounds on a pleasant day, and all days are pleas-Beyond the links picturesque Lake Placid stretches far away to the foot of old Whiteface, and many a boat and cance leave the boathouse with parties of pleasure seekers who spend the day on the water.

In harmony with the region and surroundings there is an Indian camp in a grove near the lake, where Joseph Portneuf, head chief of the Abenike tribe, has established himself with his family of expert makers of baskets and other goods of Indian manufacture. The chief himself is one of the few canoe builders left, and his camp is a favorite resort of the guests, who watch with interest his skilful operations as he fabricates graceful birch bark canoes after the method followed by his tribe for many years.

An incident of interest to the guests of this house is the winning of the challenge cup at the Grand View tennis tournament by Joseph McMahon, of the Crescent Athletic Club, who is a guest here

The latest game of baseball was with the Ruis-seaumont nine, which was defeated, 19 to 5; and Mr. White is now collecting affidavits to prove that the game was really baseball.

The small boy has invaded the links, as the fol lowing notice which recently appeared on the bulle-tin board will prove: "Stevens House Links. E. Keating, jr., and B. Squire, jr., versus J. Irwin and D. Thompson. Prize, two yards of candy. Admission, 19 cents to follow players around." The young experts forgot to collect the admission fees, but their older friends donated so many prizes that the loss was not felt by Messrs. Keating and Squire, who won the match.

On Tuesday a progressive euchre party of twenty-one tables occupied the evening, and last evening there was a brilliant german, which lasted late into the night.

Recent New-York arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Burke, N. J. Barritt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Snare, the Misses Snare, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar O. Silver, Mrs. L. A. Groh, Miss Ague, Otto H. Droege, James Kearney, jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. Hageman, Ronald E. Curtis, John P. Kane, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Daly, Miss Genevieve Daly, Miss Annie G. Walsh, Mrs. A. A. Curtis and J. F. Tobin.

THE GRAND VIEW.

This house is rejoicing in the champion baseball team of the mountains, for it has won every game played so far, many of them by hig scores. This is not surprising, for the nine includes a number of the Princeton University nine, besides several other college players. The defeated clubs include the Saranac, Paul Smith's, Stevens House and Childwold.

and there is a large entry of players from all of the other hotels. The challenge cup was won by Joseph McMahon, of the Crescent Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, and several handsome individual prizes are to be decided. This evening there will be a german, led by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton H. Salmon, of Brooklyn. The late New-York arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Platt, Benjamin J. Downer, Mrs. Thomas

McAdam, Miss McAdam, Mrs. A. L. Brown, F. T. Brown, L. P. Brown, Miss E. A. Isherwood, Miss C. E. Isherwood, Charles Valletti, Mrs. M. S. Law rence, F. S. Watt, A. C. Tolbert, Miss M. G. Morrell, Mrs. M. Becker and F. R. Colvin.

THE ROUISSEAUMONT.

The annual tennis tournament has just been com-pleted, with the following results: Men's singles, Walter Hazard, of New-York; women's singles, Miss Kaufman, of Lancaster, Penn.; mixed doubles, Miss C. Fay, of Boston, and M. Hitchcock, of Cleveland; men's doubles, Mr. Hammond, of Savannah, and Mr. Hitchcock; women's doubles, Miss Kaufman and Miss Fay.

Next week the annual regatta between this house and Whiteface Inn takes place, the principal prize being the Kisterbock trophy, which went to Whiteface last year on a technicality.

On Wednesday there was an amusing vapor On Wednesday there was an amusing vapor launch race between two boats manned by Mr. Krumbholz and J. W. Clark. It was "go as you can," and after an exciting contest Mr. Krumbholz crossed the line ahead.

Among recent arrivals at the Roulsseamont are the following from New-York: William B. Randell, H. H. Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stanton, Fritz von Bernuth and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hogan, J. H. Prall and family, Mrs. Birdseye Blakeman, Mrs. John V. B. Lewis and Miss E. W. Brown.

ELIZABETHTOWN.

Elizabethtown, Aug. 19 .- This bright community of pleasure seekers has been as busy as usual, with its many recreations, but the golf championships, which will be played for next week, are attracting many players, who are spending all their available time in practice in anticipation of capturing some of the handsome prizes that are offered.

THE DEER'S HEAD INN. The last week has been a particularly busy one, for every day and evening has been crowded with

On Saturday last there was an exciting contest on the links for the handsome trophy presented by C. A. Ferriss, the proprietor of the Inn. It was won by Walter H. Sykes, of New-York, a guest of the A lively progressive euchre party was another enjoyable affair, in which nearly all the guests enjoyable affair, in which nearly all the guests took part.

The last Sunday night concert was one of the most largely attended of the season. Chevalier Dante del Papa, the Italian tenor, is a guest of the inn, and kindly volunteered his assistance, and his selections were enthusiastically received.

On Tuesday evening there was another special concert, at which Chevalier del Papa also assisted, followed by a hop. The women devoted a great deal of time and taste to the decoration of the music hall, and the affair was one of the handsomest ever given at this house. The concert programme included solos by Felix Boucher on the 'cello, Joseph Knecht on the violin, and Professor Mesnier on the piano.

THE WINDSOR.

The coming tournaments for the Windsor competition cup, presented by Orlando Kellogg & Son; the president's championship cup, and the women's championship prize, are exciting much interest, and will produce keen competition.

THE MAPLEWOOD INN.

The quiet party at this pretty resort is still devoting most of its time to the exploration of the neighborhood, and it affords varied opportunities. One of the favorite rambles is to Wood Hill, from which a beautiful view of the village and far down the valley beyond is had. Tennis, croquet, billiards, shuffleboard and other games also serve to fill in pleasant hours, and the season is advanc-ing altogither too fast for the happy guests of the HOTEL CHILDWOLD.

Massaweple, Aug. 19.-Hotel Childwold, being in a game country, where deer have been seen daily near the hotel all summer, it is only natural that its guests should become enthusiastic sportsmen, and new that the season has opened many are going into camp to pursue their hunting in the orthodox manner.

These vacancies, however, by no means deplete the crowd at the hotel, for it is enjoying an unusually lively season. Last Saturday the college boys from Lake Placid came down and were inconsiderate enough to defeat their host's nine by a score of 12 to 6, but every one had a good time and plenty of sport.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leland gave one Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leland gave one of their charming progressive euchre parties in the Casino, when Mrs. H. E. Russell, of New-York, and Mr. Van Pelt carried off the prizes.

Another dainty entertainment was a tea given by Mrs. Pugh, of Philadelphia, at the pretty camp Iroquols.

by Mrs. Pugh, of Philadelphia, at the pretty camp Iroquols.

An incident of interest in the near future is an auction of a number of beer mugs, which have been prettily decorated by several of the guests of the house. Many are handsome and artistic, and a goodly sum will undoubtedly be realized, which will be devoted to increasing the library, which already contains about five hundred volumes.

Mr. Leland has taken the Hotel Kensington, at Fifteenth-st, and Fifth-ave., New-York, and will assume control in the early fall.

Recent New-York arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. W. Boothby, Mrs. J. A. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Trevelyan Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Seymour, Mrs. Charles Lloyd Buckt, Alfred A. Cook, Mrs. H. E. Russell, Mrs. Franay, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Black, Rowland Reid, Henry R. Barry, F. H. Rossiter, Henry W. Cannon, Miss E. Price, Miss N. Price, Miss Park and Miss Annetta Black.

Brigadler General J. H. Patterson, U. S. A., is also a guest.

KUSHAQUA LODGE. Kushaqua, Aug. 19.-The Lodge is well filled, and its guests are enjoying themselves in their quiet way. There is good hunting ground near at hand, which can be quickly reached from the house without the necessity of camping out, and several men are preparing to try their fortunes with the riffe.

Recent New-York guests are Mr. and Mrs. R.
Townsend, Alexander M. Orr, fr., Mrs. C. A. Burke,
Miss E. G. Burke, Miss N. F. Burke, John J.
Bradley, Mrs. E. M. Bradley, Mrs. L. Thomas,
Douglas Taylor, Miss Clara Taylor, I. A. Griffing and Gustav Haber.

Saranas Inn. Aug. 19.-The season on the upper Saranac Lake is one of the pleasantest in its history, for the regular guests at the Inn and the occupants of the numerous camps form an unusually agreeable community. The Inn is well filled, as usual, but travellers exploring the beauties of this section of the wilderness are always comfortably entertained by the hospitable manager of the estab-

HOTEL AUSABLE CHASM. Ausable Chasm, Aug. 19.—The beautiful and won derful Ausable Chasm is proving more attractive to tourists than ever before, and the hotel is sharing in the popularity, for it is fully up to the re-quirements of a first class resort in its location, ap quirements of a first class resort in its location, ap-pointments and management. Recent arrivals are Henry Bausch and family, of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon, of New-York; F. W. Meachem and family, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Lantry, of New-York; Mrs. Shaw and Miss Smith, of Albany.

VISITORS AT BERNARDSVILLE

Bernardsville, N. J., Aug. 19 (Special).-That Bernardsville is having a splendld season is manifested by the people here, who are thoroughly enjoying the many attractions of this charming resort. Golf here, as elsewhere, is the predominant feature of interest, and the course of the Somerset Inn links under "Georgie" Lawson, professional, of Edinburgh, has stimulated interest so much that the links are thronged daily with players. The first of the series of three tournaments to be here was played on Saturday. In the men's handicap, of eighteen holes, medal play, the winner of the Class A event was Livingston Gifford, of New-York, with a score of $2. The winner of the Class B was Henry M. Hume, of Brooklyn, with a score of 84. In the women's nine hole match, the winner of the Class A prize was Mrs. E. Holden Smith, of Brooklyn, with a score of 61, and the winner of the Class B was Mrs. B. C. Robbins, of New-York, with a score of 54.

SPORTS AT NEWPORT.

OUTDOOR PLEASURES THE FEATURES OF THE WEEK AT THE FASH-IONABLE RESORTS.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—During the early days of the week the craft of the New-York Yacht Club filled the harbor as it was almost never filled before, making a pretty sight with their white wings by day and their bright lights and brilliant decorations at night. Crowds of people viewed the scene from the wharves or small boats. On many of the yachts there were social gatherings in the evening ften with music and fireworks, adding greatly to the gayety and brilliance of the picture.

One of the sights of the week was the schooner racht America, the first winner of the cup that bears her name, at anchor astern and next to the Columbia, the latest cup defender. The America now owned by Butler Ames, though a trim craft, makes only a modest appearance beside the tower ing Columbia.

Monday was, of course, the big day affoat, the harbor being practically cleared as the great fleet of yachts went out to see the start or to follow the course of the Astor Cup races. Tuesday there was smaller but good sized gathering to witness the wind up contests for the Commodore Morgan cups. With the disbandment of the squadron on Wedn day most of the yachts departed on their several ways, though many still remained, making this port their summer headquarters.

At the Casino the Astor cups were placed on exhibition and were much admired as handsome ex amples of the silversmith's art. This has been tennis week, always a fashionable feature of the Newport summer season, for the matches for the National championship not only attract the tennis enthusiasts, but serve also as a sort of open air dress parade for society. Though the list of entries this year was unusually small, it ontained nearly all the more active of the younger dayers, with a few of the older men, formerly familiar figures on the championship courts. Many of the social favorites were here and the interest in fashionable circles was perhaps not less than if the usual large number of entries had been made, For this tournament there were also displayed at the Casino the prizes in competition, making a very andsome collection.

Tennis in the morning and polo in the afternoon as been the programme for most days this week Although the polo tournament came at a rather bad time and was brought into competition with both yachting and tennis, it has held its own unexpectedly well. Polo is evidently back again in favor, and once more installed as an essential part of the season's round of gayety.

Golf divides attention with all these and has many devotees in whose hearts it reigns supreme The tournament is set down for the last of the nonth, but just now the women are having a series of matches for cups. On some days no less than thirty women have been in the competition and many excellent scores are handed in. The golf clubhouse is a gay and busy place in these days. being the favorite resort for luncheons and small dinners, while with the installation of the new electric lighting plant evening parties and dances will follow. Superintendent Davis and his assis Ball as professionals, and Messrs. tant, Mr. Douglass and Harriman, as amateurs, will repre sent the Newport Club at the open championship ournament at the Roland Park Country Club, Baltimore, next month.

Society has been so busy out of doors this week that there has been little time or opportunity for social entertaining withir doors, comparatively, a few quiet dinners each day making up the list. Indeed, there are indications that quiet family or intimate circle gatherings, rather than elaborate functions on a splendid scale, are to mark the entertainments of this season. Thus far no large balls or magnificent dinner parties have been given, and it does not now look as if there were to be and it does not now look as it there week mark many of these this year. This and next week mark the culminating point in the gay season, though the cottage colony will remain almost unbroken until long after September opens. The date of the coaching parade has been set

SUCCESSFUL CAPE MAY SEASON.

LOOMIS TESTIMONIAL AT THE STOCKTON-RECENT ARRIVALS.

Cape May, N. J., Aug. 19.—The most successful season for several years is the present one. The arrivals have been more numerous, especially during the last two weeks, than were expected by the most sanguine and hopeful hotel proprietor. The chief incident of the week was the Loomis testimonial at the Stockton Hotel to-night, which was given for the leader of the dances there, a veteran who has taught dancing in most of the Eastern cities, and who was for a long time instructor in dancing in New-Haven, where he taught many of the students of Yale. Last night a pink ball was given at Congress

MONMOUTH COUNTY TOURNAMENT.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE AFFAIR INTEREST LONG BRANCH RESIDENTS.

Long Branch, N. J., Aug. 19.-The preparations for the two days' exhibition of the Monmouth County military tournament in Hollywood Park next Friday and Saturday continue to attract the cottagers and hotel guests, who are taking the live-liest kind of interest in making it a brilliant suc-cess. A guarantee fund of $6,000 has been pledged, and nearly all of this ancunt has been collected and turned over to the treasurer. Ever since the announcement was given out that the profits would go to the Porto Rican sufferers interest has been

The programme cannot fall to attract. It includes one mile bicycle race, 220 yard dash, one mile run, handicap; putting 32-pound shot, half mile run, open to members of the National Guard of New-York and New-Jersey, the United States Army and Navy; modern broadsword contest, 120 yard hurdle race, cycle race for hoys sixteen years, one mile; 100 yard run, quarter mile run, handicap; running broad jump, tug of war of four men each, special event for cavalry, potato race, manikin race, low reaching. Handsome prizes will be awarded.

This is the season of the year when talk is plentiful about the many changes that will be made before the opening of another season. Already a modern hotel, to cost over a half million dollars, is said to be on the way-on paper. Plans, however, have been prepared for extensive alterations to the West End Hotel, which has experienced the best season since the closing of Monmouth Park. W. E. Hildreth says: "While plans have been prepared for extensive alterations, it is not certain that the project will go through. It will cost over $100,000 to complete what we have in view." Speaking of the season, Mr. Hildreth said: "The West End is all right. The season is far ahead of my expectations. It is the best since 1893."

All the hotel men speak encouragingly, although the weather of the last week has been a trifle too cool to suit them. All the big hostleries will keep open until September 15 and probably longer.

UNPRECEDENTED NUMBER OF GUESTS AT THIS

Block Island, Aug. 19 (Special).-There are more guests at Block Island at the present time, it is said, than at any previous corresponding time for many years past. The young people comprise a large portion of the present population, and are having a thoroughly good time at Manisses this This year there is something on the tapts all the time, including card parties, straw rides, dancing, moonlight sails around the island, golfing, driving and bathing. The hotels are all comfortably filled, and yet the proprietors at the various houses unite in saying that next week will be the banner week, unless a large percentage this is highly improbable, as a majority of them are booked for the remainder of the season. L. D. Waddell, of Yale, class of '01, gave a Yale dinner at the Ocean View Hotel the other evening Judge C. R. Ingalls, of Troy, N. Y., accompanied by his family, has gone to Saratoga for the remainder of the vacation period. Judge Ingalls has been a guest at Manisses for thirty-three summers The social event of the last week was the entertainment given in the music hall of the Ocean View on Thursday evening. The entertainment con-stated of tableaus, recitations and music. Judge Parkhurst, of the Supreme Court of New-York, is a guest at the Ocean View.

Fishing near the island is somewhat slow at the present time, although the larger fishing schooners which go outside for a considerable distance are
